LETTER PAGE
WITH NO COOL NAME,
YET.

Well here it is 1997, and this is our third issue of C.R.A. I thought it was about time we added a letter page to this little monster we call a 'zine (pronounced zeen), but since no one knew they were supposed to write us any I thought I'd get the ball rolling by writing one to you. enjoy!

Dear Reader,

Hey man, we want to hear from you! You've probably had a lot of amazing things to say at one point or another, right? But no one wanted to listen to you, right? Well here's what you do. Get those wonderful thoughts of yours on paper, bum 32 cents off someone, buy a stamp, "borrow" an envelope, and send those jumbled incoherent opinions of yours to us. We promise to read any and every lame scrawled thing you send to us. And as a special added bonus, if you send us something cool we'll type it up, print it, and even find some loser with nothing better to do to give you a reply to your letter, and make fun of your handwriting. If we use your letter in an issue of C.R.A. we'll also send you your very own copy of that issue, personally autographed by my dog, Bagel the Beagle. So send those letters out today to the letter department of CONSTANTLY RISKING ABSURDITY. PO Box 1162 vero beach, FL 32961

G-Why don't all you guys introduce yourselves, and say a little something to your fans.

J-We have fans!?? Wow, I thought they were just friends of ours who'd feel guilty if they didn't come see us play.

S-I'd like to say to us, cause I can't imagine anyone else liking us.

A-Hello

Ph-Hello there. I just wanna thank everybody for coming out to see us play, and making my nipples hard! I do appreciate it.

G-Enough of that, so when are you guys finally gonna put out your long awaited tape?

J-Well, we had some problems recording. After declining some previous deals we decided to go with the free one. We hooked up with some friends who recorded us in the chorus room at the high school (VBHS). We're semi happy with it, and should be getting some copies made to send to recording companies and indie labels. We'll probably have mass produced copies by the summer.

Ph-Right now we're still spending our money on a P.A. system. After that we'll buy a few hundred tapes and start selling them, but we hope getting our demo tape out will help us get some gigs outside of vero beach. Infact we're going to be playing on the 19th with the Kosmo Kramers at Club Safari in Fort Pierce(561-465-7000)

G-So, is it true that you'll all have to shave your heads, and sell your hair in order to cover the production costs of the new album?

J- Well, none of us are going to shave our heads, but I did have to sell some hair. For the sake of polite conversation I'll just say that I feel like I'm ten years old again.

G-So Alan, as front man do you feel you support the band?

A-Well, now that you mention it, I AM FRONTMAN. Quite frankly they'd be NOTHING without ME.(everyone laughs except Alan)

Ph-Actually the truth is that all of us contribute to the band equally, and we all support each other.

G-So, are you really going to replace John with a tambourine girl?

S-Yes, but we haven't found one that's willing yet.

A-We're currently auditioning tambourine players, so if you know anyone who'd be interested. . . .

G-Who are your major musical influences?

A-No comment.

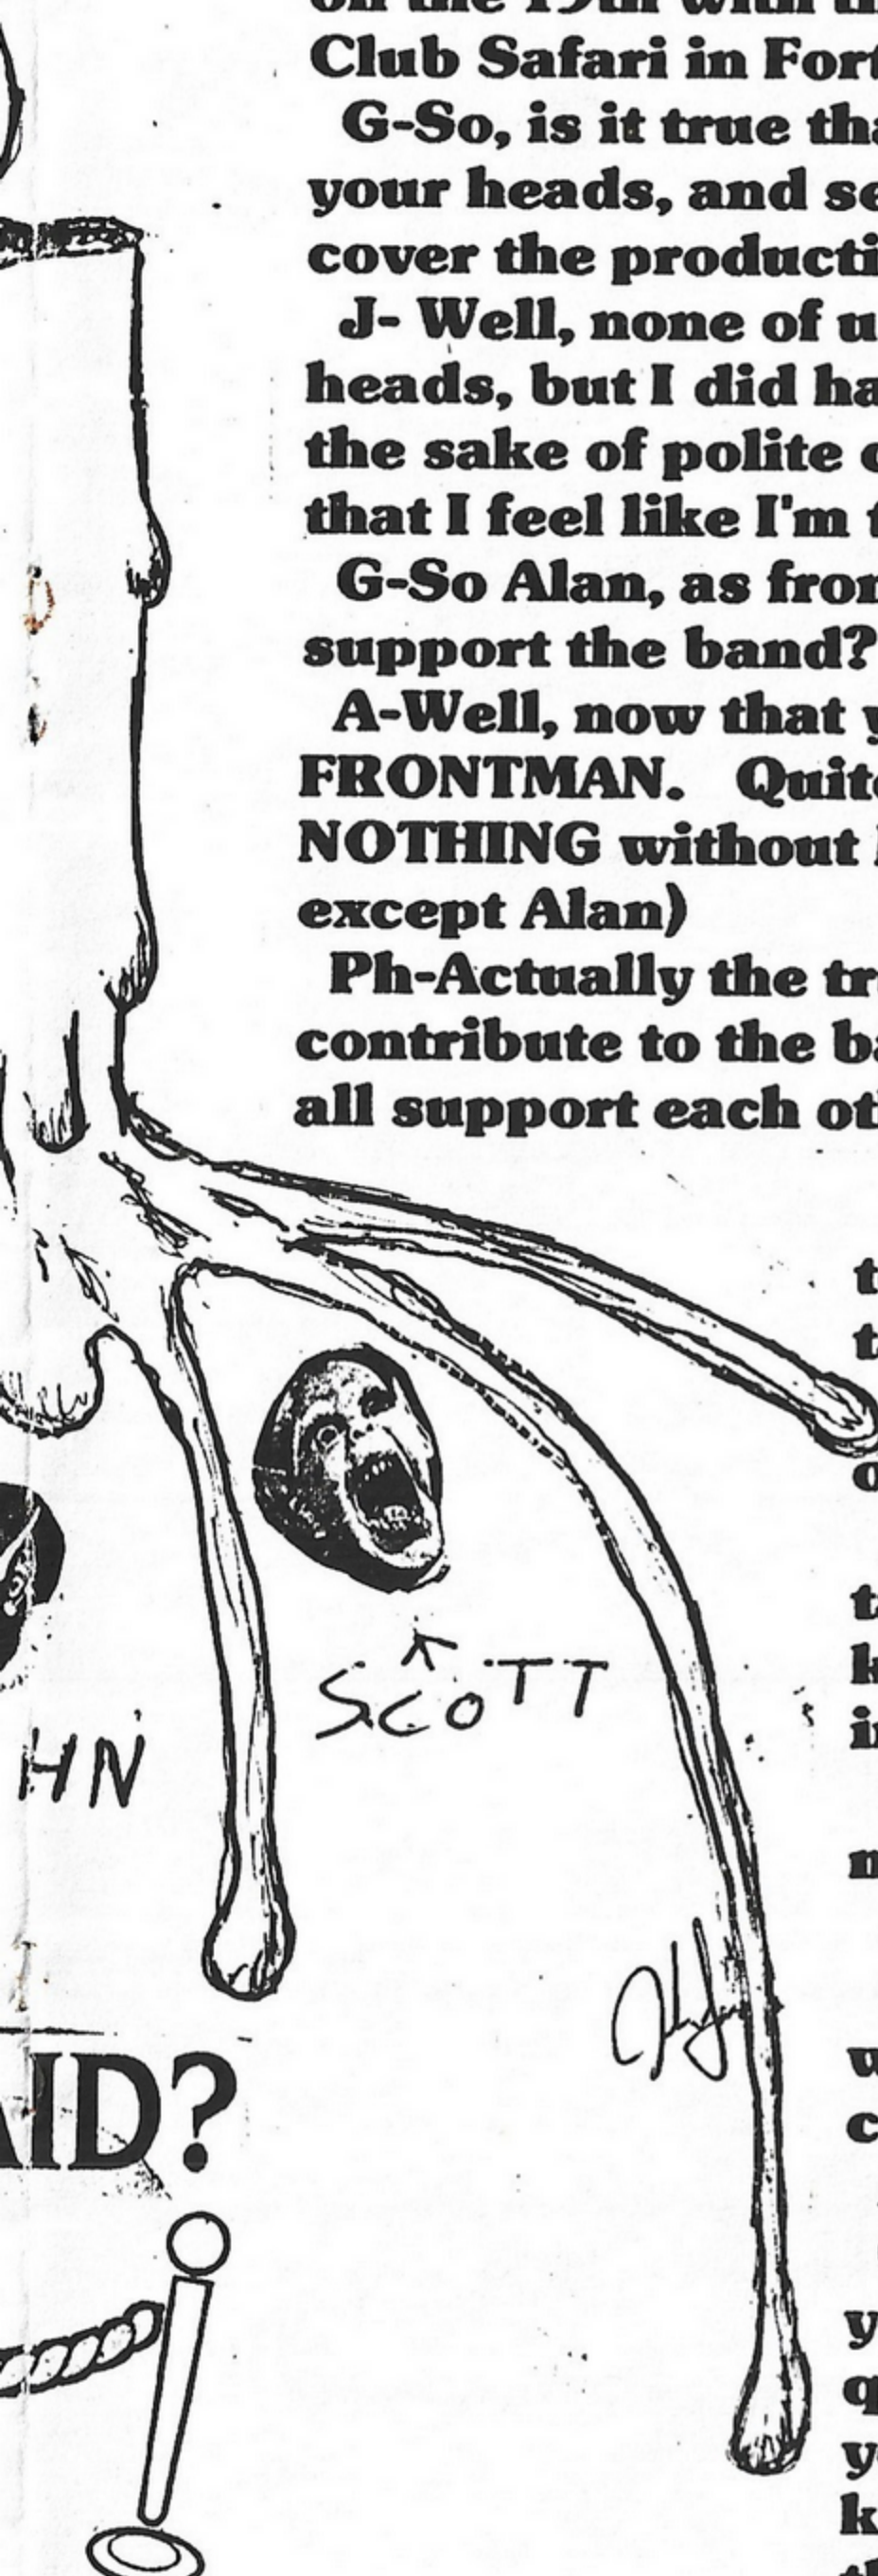

G-No comment you say, but what are the hidden connotations behind that?

A-No comment.

G-I regret to inform you that you won't be answering anymore questions until after I've slapped you silly.(smack,smack,smack, kick,smack,bang,SMACK) Well, that was very, very therapeutic for me. Let's move on.

A-Agreed!

Continued

G-Have you been taking a break from playing shows in order to write some new material, or are you guys just freakin lazy?

A-Well, quite frankly both, we are lazy, and we have been writing a LOT of new material. It's more in the vein of black metal. It's a bit harder and faster than our old stuff. I'm really expanding my vocals in these new songs. People will probably be taken off guard a bit this, but no more than they were when we first came out. You'll get a chance to hear our new stuff for the first time on Sunday the 19th at Club Safari.

G-All right, enough clowning around, lets skip to the things your fans are really interested in, the personal stuff. So which do you prefer, Spree or lemon pez.

A-Spree,Spree,Spree. A thousand times Spree.

G-Do any of you have any scars, tattoos, or identifying marks?

A-Actually I have two large scars, one on my tongue which is the result of a nasty fall, and a circumcision scar.

J-Just my ugly face.

Ph-Well, I have an identifying mark. Once I put an old flashlight in my back pocket and battery acid started leaking out of it. I've still got a red mark on my right cheek from that.

E-I have a scar on my nose and a cute freckle on my thigh. Does that count?

G-Only if you show me your freckle.

E-I think that'd be indecent exposure.

G-Well I didn't say it had to be in public.

E-Oh, well then O.K. Actually you can see it when I wear a bathing suit, kay?

G-Sounds good to me.

G-You guys are gonna let me roadie for you once you start playing a lot of out o' town shows right?

S-Maybe.

J-Well, uh I kinda lost interest, this is getting boring I think I'm gonna leave.

A-Same here.

S-Me too.

Ph-Yep.

G-O.K. then forget you guys, see if I even print your stupid interview! Ow, who threw that? I hate my school!

LIFE ON A BUS

Getting there is Twice the fun
Of being there
And being done

On the road
Dreams come true
Life and hope
Are born anew

Wind whispers over open highway
Eulogies of dreams passed by

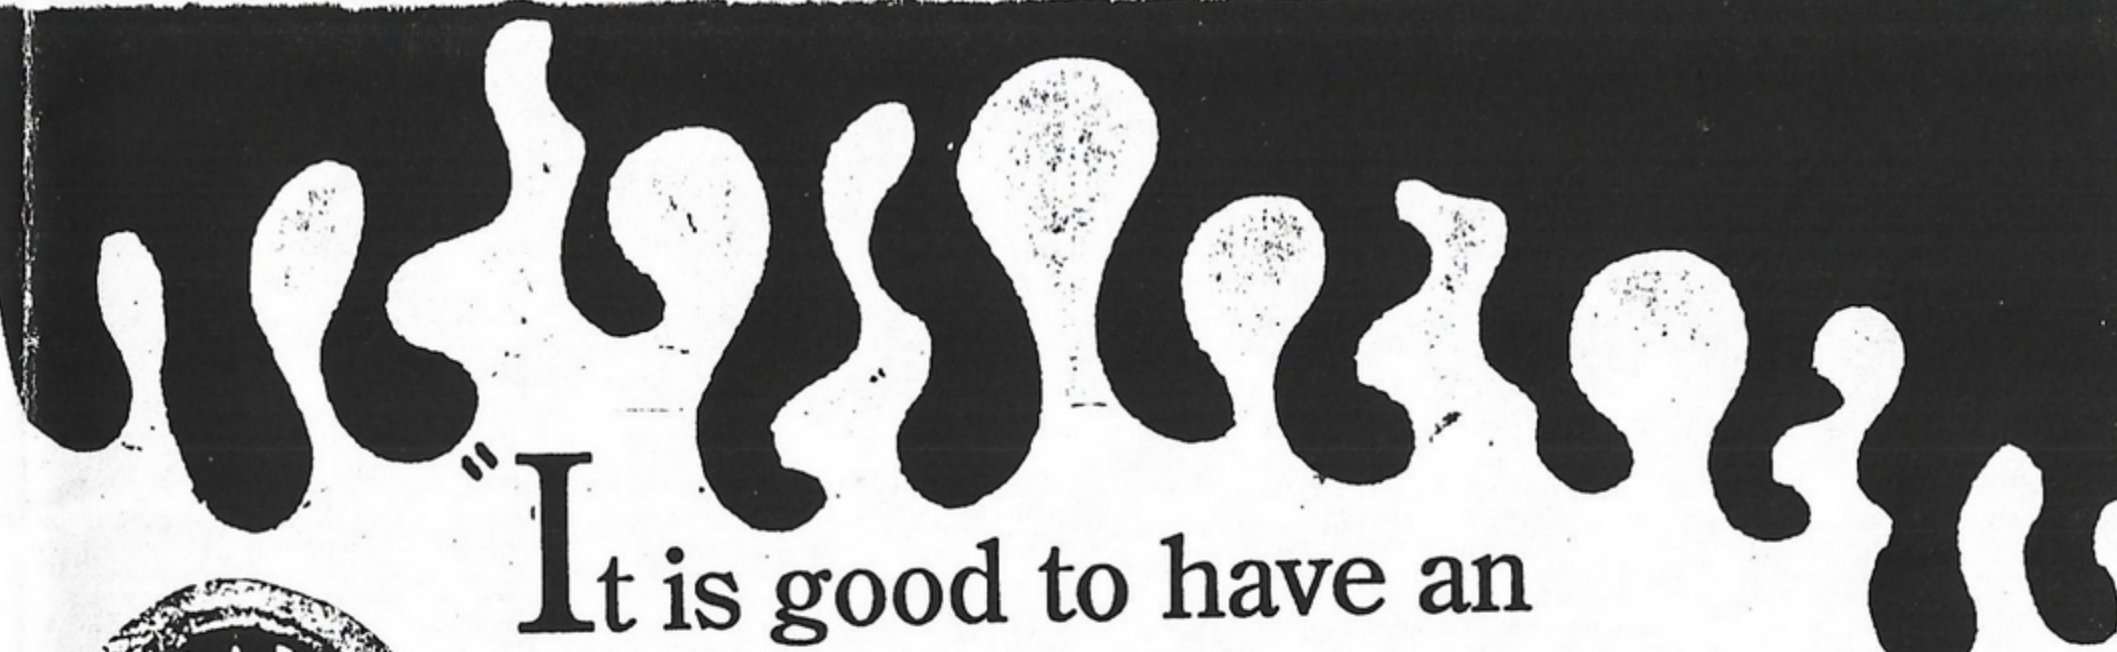

Your soul slips by on yellow lines

A winged chariot of worn concrete

As you depart the road
Of miles and men and tiring machines
Do not forget the journey

end to journey toward;
but it is the journey that matters, in the end."

"I guess I kinda lost control, because in the middle of the play I ran up and lit the evil puppet villain on fire. No, I didn't. I just said that to illustrate one of the human emotions, Which is freaking out. Another emotion is greed, as when someone kills someone else for money, or something like that. Another emotion is generosity, as when you pay someone double what he paid for his stupid puppet!"
